

Why a Philharmonic Society?

We have:

A strong community

- businesses support cultural life
- individuals engage in neighborhood interests
- a diversity of people, interests and activities connect
- bustling churches, libraries, theaters

We recognize:

A vibrant music scene

- open to diverse musical offerings
- values ties and partnerships to sister arts
- accessible to all
- takes pride in its sense of ownership

We envision:

A musical model for the future

- orchestra strongly connected to the community
- engages vicinity's strengths and interests
- intimate familiarity of works: interaction with artists
- collaboration with other genres & artistic disciplines

We propose:

The Suburban Philharmonic Society

- Performance of the orchestral masterworks
- World-class regional soloists
- Brunch/recital music series in homes
- In-residence Composer-of-the-Year
- Participatory exploration of listening
- Competition for emerging artists
- Chamber music coaching for youth

Proposed performance schedule:

Inaugural Season

Opening recital: March 4, 2010
“Meet-the-Musicians” brunch recitals

Season II

SPS Orchestra in four communities:

- Fall 2011: SPS Strings Mostly Baroque
- Spring 2012: Classical Masterworks

Four-concert home recital series

Season III

Three-concert orchestra series

Home recital series

Commence:

- Apprentice Artist Program
- 1st annual Featured Composer
- 1st annual Emerging Artist Competition

You can help bring an orchestra to life!

Host a dinner or brunch recital at your home

Help recruit the board of directors

Volunteer for one of our committees

For detailed information, email us at

SPhilSociety@gmail.com

Or connect with us on facebook